Dear Admiral Smith:

I am pleased to learn that your busy schedule may permit you to visit CIA during the early part of July. I would welcome such a visit, and if convenient with you, I would like to suggest the date of 11 July. At that time, we would be prepared to present a personal briefing on the intelligence situation in the areas of your interest. The briefing will require approximately two hours.

25X1 A time most convenient for you can be arranged through [redacted] our Representative at your Headquarters. If time permits, I hope you can arrange to have lunch with me.

Faithfully yours,

(Signed) Marshall S. Carter
